

YORK HOUSE

PENZANCE

'OWN YOUR OWN BIT OF HISTORY'

AN AGE OF ELEGANCE

BEAUTIFULLY RESTORED

11 beautifully restored apartments in the grade II listed York House. Nestled on the edge of the stunning coastal town of Penzance, you'll find stunning views and fascinating history in this vibrant town.

EST. 1825

Built in 1825 by successful merchant John Pope, this Grade II listed late Georgian period home in the vibrant town of Penzance has been both rigorously and sympathetically restored along with the equestrian stables into 11 beautiful one and two bedroom apartments.

Employing the long forgotten skills of stone and plaster masons, metal workers and artisan joiners; an age of elegance re-imagined for 21st century living!

Nestled on the edge of the stunning coastal town of Penzance, you'll find stunning views and fascinating history.

Good transport links, with easy access to the A30, and rail services to Plymouth, Bristol, and London.

Great selection of local amenities including a Post Office, pharmacy, and a range of shops in Penzance town centre.

York House Site Manager Jerry Dawkins has been awarded the Highly Commended LABC Warranty Regional Site Manager Award for 2023.

“Conservation and enjoyment of our built heritage is the best way of celebrating and preserving history, contributing to and steering local character, and appreciating the built fabric and traditional construction. As we approach the 200th year of this building, future history starts today and the residents of the properties will be able to become part of the 21st Century story of York House in Penzance.”
